In-Depth Speech and Debate Training for Future Leaders

Target Student: ☐ Elementary class: 3rd-5th grades ☐ Middle School class: 6th-8th grades

Public speaking requires a wide range of verbal communication skills. Competitive speech and debate is comprised of many events, each designed to develop and test a student's skill in a particular area. In this in-depth two-semester survey class, students will perform in more than 10 speech events, and in both solo and team debate. Skills developed in this class include: memorization techniques, delivery styles, phrasing, projection, eye-contact and gestures, impromptu speaking, poetry recitation, prose interpretation, dramatic interpretation, humorous interpretation, argument analysis and development, evidentiary rules and more.

The class features competitive rounds in a tournament structure for each event, students will receive feedback from both the instructor and classmates, and will become a more natural, confident, and effective speaker.
